Re: Neal Presant, MD

Dear Ms. Rausch:

Pursuant to the Maryland Medical Practice Act, the Board of Physicians (the "Board") is responsible for assuring that licensed physicians and allied health practitioners render competent medical care to the citizens of Maryland and comply with all statutory and regulatory requirements governing the practice of medicine in Maryland.

The Board is in receipt of your complaint against the above-mentioned physician. However, the allegations you present in your complaint do not fall under the jurisdiction of the Board nor does it fall under the 46 grounds with which the Board may potentially charge a physician.

Very truly yours,

Maureen Sammons

Re: Elizabeth Pinkard-Adams

Dear Ms. Rausch:

Thank you for your June 9, 2020 correspondence.

The Board of Physicians (the "Board") does not have a licensee by this name on its current roster and therefore is unable to proceed with your complaint. In addition, the Board does not regulate Accessibility Specialists.

Very truly yours,

Maureen Sammons
